MISSIONARY CORNER

Carol Reimer (Alaska Bible College)

"What a comfort to begin 2012 knowing that God does know what we need. This has been very evident to me in the last couple of months. I found myself in several different perplexing situations where I didn't even know what I needed. I remember praying - God you know what I need to get through this - so I'm asking you to provide. What an awesome realization, when a few days later the situation was resolved and God had provided exactly what I needed, in a way that I never expected. When we take our hands off and let God do things His way - things turn out so much better. My prayer is that I would remember this and put it into practice....Please pray for another good semester of growing deeper in our relationship with the Lord..."

Letters from our missionaries are posted on the bulletin board in the back of the sanctuary.

II Peter 1:12-15 A Resounding Reminder

Introduction - We are a forgetful people.

Today the Bible will teach us the value of a resounding reminder, the reality that Peter's death was near, and the recollection that comes after repeated hearing, so that we would be stirred up in our faith.

1. Peter Reminder v.12 - 13

2. Peter's Reality v.14

3. Peter's Hope of Recollection v.15

Conclusion - May we see the value of reminding others of God's truth so they would be stirred up in their faith. May we be stirred up in our faith as we continue to be reminded of truths we have already learned, knowing our time is short.
