MISSIONARY CORNER

John & MaryAnna Casey

I recently was thinking about how Jesus describes us as the "light of the world" (Matthew 5: 14-16) and it occurred to me that light is very quiet...Certainly there are clear times that words are the best way, but too often I think we miss opportunities to be quiet light. As we build relationships with others around us in Aniak, our hope is to be just the right balance of quiet light and wise words. Above all we try to listen to God for what He wants us to say or do...

Our first term is quickly drawing to a close as we plan to complete our time in Aniak at the end of April. We plan to return to western Alaska to continue the ministry God has for us. Which village we will live in is entirely unknown to us at this time. Please pray for clear direction as we begin planning for church visits in the spring.

A prayer of praise - We are expecting a new baby girl on July 31st!

Letters from our missionaries are posted on the bulletin board in the back of the sanctuary.

The Danger of False Teachers part 2 II Peter 2:4-10

Introduction/review

Today we will study three specific illustrations of God's judgment related to false teachers so that we would learn how severely God promises to punish them.

1. The illustration of fallen angles v. 4

2. The illustration of the ancient world/flood v. 5

3. The illustration of Sodom & Gomorrah v. 6-8

Conclusion - May we hear what God says about this important subject and pray for protection in the church for the glory of God.
